SONOMA, SONOMA COUNTY, CAL., OCTOBER, 24, 1914.

NO. 15

Charles F. Fury, Republican Nominee for State Senator.

Charles F. Fury, Republican nominee for State Senator, will address the voters of this district in conjunction with Edward H. Hart, Republican nominee for Congress, at Union Hall, Monday night.

Mr. Fury has been a practicing attorney in Sonoma County for many years, and is widely and very favorably known as an attorney and as a man.

Regarding his attitude, politically, Mr. Fury clearly and comprehensively declares himself in the following letter:

MR. H. H. GRANICE,
EDITOR INDEX-TRIBUNE,
DEAR SIR:

In the present political campaign, we find the Republican party and the Progressive party, in the State of California, having planks endorsing and advocating the principle of a protective tariff; the Democratic platform endorsing the low tariff act which has caused so much distress to great industries of our State. The Progressives believe in a protective tariff; so do Republicans.

Two years hence another great struggle will take place, in which an effort will be made to restore the nation to a protective tariff basis. The present political battle in California is but the opening gun of the greater, more important struggle in 1916. California is naturally a Republican State; Sonoma County is naturally a Republican County.

My father and grandfather were Republicans before me. I was born and reared to manhood in one of the best farming sections of northern New York, and early learned that a protective tariff was beneficial to the American Farmers. That policy of Government is as effective today as it was a quarter of a century ago. However attractive the English theory of free trade may be from an academic standpoint, experience has proved that to the people of a state like California, a tariff for revenue only is disastrous.

My chief opponent, the Democratic candidate in the contest for State Senator from this district may say that such an issue has no place in a state campaign. That question is always an issue, a vital issue, and the fact that the platforms adopted by the various conventions held at Sacramento expressly and explicitly declared upon that issue demonstrates that each party convention considered it a live, state issue.

The question before the people of Sonoma County, so far as it relates to my candidacy, is, to a large extent, simply this. Can the people of this county afford to endorse the policy represented and advocated by my Democratic opponent? Can this County consistently serve notice upon the State and the nation that it prefers a Democratic to a Republican representative in the State Senate?

Believing that the voters of Sonoma and your readers generally are entitled to know why I am a candidate for this office upon the Republican ticket, I write you this letter. If elected, my only pledge to the people is that I will at all times strive to conscientiously and faithfully perform my duty in the interest of all the people of Sonoma County, favoring no particular section, class or creed, but doing all in my power to bring about a return to the Governmental principle of protection to American industries and American products which will serve to protect California against the inroads of Chinese eggs, Australian butter, and the cheap products of other foreign countries.

If the people of Sonoma County wish to elect me upon such a platform and such a pledge, I will be glad to serve them.

Yours very truly,
CHARLES F. FURY.

CRUZAN NOT A PROHIBITIONIST

Donald E. Cruzan was in town, this week, in the interest of his candidacy, and is also to address the voters at the Hart-Fury meeting, Monday night. Mr. Cruzan explains his attitude on State-wide Prohibition in the following declaration:

TO THE VOTERS: When you receive your sample ballots, you will find that I have received the Prohibition nomination for member of the Assembly in the 13th district. Believing that I am a victim of the workings of the present primary law, I am taking the opportunity of expressing my sentiments on Amendment No. 2. I am unalterably opposed to the measure, and am doing and shall do all in my power to defeat it. The Prohibition nomination came to me unlooked for; twenty-three persons, unknown to me having written my name in as their candidate. I am not in sympathy with the movement and wish to correct the error that has arisen through a primary law which forces upon a candidate a nomination he does not seek and does not want.

Yours respectfully,
D. E. CRUZAN,
Candidate Member Assembly, 13th District.

For Judge of the Superior Court

Mrs. Frances McG. Martin

Election November 3rd, 1914

TO THE MEN AND WOMEN VOTERS OF SONOMA COUNTY:

On November third, 1914, you will find my name on the ballot, as one of the nominees of the August Primary, for the office of Judge of the Superior Court of Sonoma County. Men and Women voters and residents of different parts of this County, urged me to be a candidate, saying: "We need one woman in that office."

The men of Sonoma County, by a goodly majority, in the year 1911, gave to their mothers, sisters, wives, daughters and sweethearts the right to vote at any and all elections. Did they not mean by their vote that women were fitted, and entitled to take part in politics? The latest and best definition of POLITICS which I can find—given by the 1913 edition of the most comprehensive dictionary, is: "Politics—The science of government; the administration of public affairs in the interest of the peace, prosperity and safety of the State." Politics, as above defined, has now taken all judicial, school and County offices in the State of California, out of partisanship, and the names of all candidates for judgeships, school and County offices, appear on all the ballots of all parties, as non-partisan nominees.

Is it not ennobling to men and women to share in the right and honorable administration of the affairs of the State and Nation? How can women exert any direct influence in politics without actively sharing in the offices and positions of trust in the County, State and Nation?

The majority of men in this County and State, by their vote for equal suffrage, did not mean that both men and women should, by their votes, elect to office men only. They meant, surely, that there should be a sharing of responsibilities.

In a letter received by me from Mrs. L. S. Sheldon, of Lawrence, Kansas, she says: "I went out at the Primary, and my name will be on the ballot at the final election, for a place upon the Supreme Bench. Men tell me they think I shall win. They build their expectations on the belief that women will rally to my cause, as the Woman's cause, and for a change in the administration of the Law."

Katherine Bement Davis, Commissioner of Corrections of the great city of New York, was appointed by Mayor John P. Mitchell. Sent to the prison at Blackwell's Island, recently, to quell a mutiny of 1400 convicts, she succeeded in settling all disorders and grievances in the short space of three days, by her firm but womanly manner of dealing with those criminals—all men. A man who witnessed her procedure, said of her methods: "A man's methods, with the edges rounded." I suppose some one will say: "No place for a woman!" but Katherine B. Davis has proved that it is just the place for a woman. Leading writers are now saying: "The methods of motherhood are what government most needs."

To those who desire proof that some women are fitted to be judges, I cite the fourth chapter of Judges—Old Testament—which gives an account of the judgeship of Deborah over the whole nation of Israel. Recent Bible History names Deborah as one of the four greatest judges that Israel ever had.

Boston, New York and Chicago have separate courts for hearing in private, before a woman judge and women court officers, the cases of delinquent young women and girls, sparing them a measure of shame, sorrow and publicity. Boston led the way with a separate court for women. St. Louis has just recently inaugurated courts presided over by women judges for investigating and trying the cases of young girls and women so unfortunate as to be arrested.

A dispatch from Chicago, dated, May 21st, 1914, says: "Miss Kate S. Holmes, an ardent suffragist, is demonstrating that a woman can preside over a large array of legal lights as effectively as a man. She is presiding in one of the government's biggest trust prosecutions—the suit to dissolve the Quaker Oats Company. In the big courtroom usually occupied by Federal Judge Mack, Miss Holmes is holding court. A brilliant array of counsel for both sides surrounds her. But Miss Holmes is the 'boss'. She was appointed by Federal Judge Carpenter to hear the testimony." What, is it not a woman's place?

Mrs. Mary C. C. Bradford is the State Superintendent of Public Instruction of the State of Colorado, and that state has 70,000 more men voters than women voters. Mrs. Mary Wolfe Dargin of Denver, Colorado, has been appointed by President Wilson to be Register of the Federal Land office situated in that city.

President Wilson recently appointed Mrs. Grace B. Calkin, Receiver of the Land Office at San Francisco, she had previously been elected Secretary of the Democratic State Central Committee. She says of the Receivership: "I believe so strongly in women and their efficiency that I intend to prove it to all those who have worked so hard for women and suffrage, by applying myself with all there is in me."

A leading San Francisco Daily: "President Wilson's delayed appointment of Mrs. Annette Adams as an Assistant United States Attorney will please a number of people who have thought very highly of the President, but have been very much disappointed at what seemed to be a disingenuous position on the women question. There is no excuse under the sun why a State which has given its women the right to vote should not be allowed also to give them a place in its judicial system. Women are at least as well qualified as men to conduct cases or to sit upon the bench."

"But Mrs. Adams' appointment has more than an immediate importance. It is something to have the experiment of a women prosecutor at San Francisco. It is more to see the approach of a day in which no woman will be exploited because they are without the voting power to call in the government to fight on their side."

Eagle County, Colorado, according to the press, has a woman County Judge, who has filled that office since early in 1911. She is the widowed mother of several children.

Mrs. N. E. Davidson, is the opponent of State Superintendent of Schools of the State of California, Edward Hyatt, at the November election.

Mrs. Matthews, County Auditor of Mendocino County, is renominated for that office and has no opposition. Mrs. A. Porterfield, of our same neighboring county on the North, is nominated for County Superintendent of Schools.

Of the twenty-one (21) offices within the gift of the voters of Sonoma County, exclusive of Township offices, but one, that of Superintendent of Schools, is now filled by a woman, and she has administered that eminently important office so well, that no one has opposed her for re-election. Having, in the past, held that office for eight years, I can bear witness that it requires constant and devoted attention, justice and impartiality. My work as Superintendent of Schools and in helping to obtain the ballot for women, is well known, I believe, in this County.

I had to pass the same examination before the Supreme Court that the other fifty-nine applicants were given; as there were but two women applicants at that examination, and both were successful, it cannot be that there is any sex in the study of law. I have been practicing my profession in the Courts of this County, with frequent appearances in other counties—for eighteen years, beginning February 1st, 1896.

The disagreeable cases harped upon by some, are made disagreeable by having one or more women in them as principals or witnesses. Why should there not be one woman judge to keep those women in countenance?

If elected, I hereby pledge myself to give impartial justice, tempered with mercy, to men, women, boys and girls, rich and poor alike; to be guided by the law and evidence in all kinds of litigation, and to be found at my post of duty, at all times, except during the one month of vacation enjoyed by each judge during the year. I do not approve of giving all the criminal cases to the same judge for eight or ten years at a stretch, but do believe in sharing them alike, taking a year each of such work, alternately, during the term of office.

I cannot elect myself, but hope to have the support of all men and women who believe in fairness and justice.

MRS. FRANCES MCG. MARTIN.

Hart and Fury to Speak at Union Hall, Monday Night.

Next Monday night, at Union Hall, Edward H. Hart, Republican nominee for Congress from this district, and Charles F. Fury, Republican nominee for State Senator, will address the voters of the Sonoma Valley.

The Hart meeting had been dated for Tuesday night of this week, but Mr. Hart found it necessary to cancel the date for that of a week later, and will positively meet with the people of this district next Monday night, October 26th.

A large and enthusiastic gathering will certainly be on hand to greet the distinguished speakers, both of whom are making a strong and what is generally conceded to be a winning campaign.

The Rose City Quartette—the popular county seat campaign singers—will be present to entertain the audience with several fine selections. The Sonoma Valley Band is to discourse several numbers, and help to make this Hart-Fury meeting a rousing gathering.

During this week Mr. Hart has been campaigning in Marin County and next week is to be devoted by him to addressing the voters of Sonoma and Eureka and make flying visits to various other points.

The Republican nominee for Congress is making an active campaign, and endeavoring to afford every voter an opportunity to hear the political issues of the present campaign discussed, and the reason why he should support the Republican ticket convincingly pointed out to him.

Although Kent will appear upon the ticket as a Progressive, nevertheless he really is not, in all probability, entitled to the nomination, because it appears that in many precincts his votes were bunched under one political head, and when he made his contest the votes that were erroneously credited to the Progressive or Republican column were added to the Democratic column where they belonged, but were not subtracted from those columns; thus his strength would seem to be many hundred votes greater than it really was.

In Glenn County, for instance, he was generally credited with his vote under head of Republican, and in that way apparently ran much stronger as a Republican than he really did. When his vote was recounted, many of the votes were taken from the Republican column and added to the Democratic, but in the published returns, the reductions were not noted in the Republican column, because there was no contest for the Republican nomination.

Under the same conditions, there being no Progressive contest, votes were taken from that column in some cases and added to the Democratic vote of Kent, but no deductions were officially announced from the Progressive column—that, of course, means that the same votes were counted twice, and thus he retains a Progressive nomination to which possibly he is not entitled.

Progressives naturally resent this double system of counting votes, and they do not intend to give their support to some one who, if the votes had been properly recorded, would not be entitled to their party nomination, not to speak of the fact that he repudiates their platform.

Kent is also appealing for the Prohibition votes, and has been introduced as a Prohibitionist, and is securing the support of their papers although the party has a candidate of its own. Thus he is trying to secure the endorsement of all the parties, while denouncing parties in general, and he is trying to appear as the candidate of all the parties, while as a matter of fact he has only really secured the nomination of the Socialists, whom he says he agrees with and who are the real progressives of today.

DEPART FOR LOS ANGELES

Thursday morning, Dr. Frederick Leix took his departure for San Francisco, where he will be joined by his wife, Dr. Frances B. Leix, and continue on to Los Angeles, where they will establish their home and engage in the practice of their profession.

During the years of their residence in Sonoma, these greatly esteemed and skilled medics built up an extensive and lucrative practice, which they gave up considerably more than a year ago, to perfect themselves further in medicine and surgery by pursuing courses of study under the most renowned specialists and in the finest of European hospitals. As a result of study, the latest and most successful methods of treating the most stubborn diseases was acquired, which will enable these progressive physicians to achieve a greater degree of success than that which attended their years of practice in Sonoma.

Aside from the high professional standing of Drs. Frederick and Frances Leix throughout the Sonoma Valley, they were prominent in fraternal and social circles, and a legion of friends deeply regret their removal to so great a distance and wish and bespeak for them a full measure of prosperity in the southland.

For competency and efficiency elect Dr. Frank Phillips coroner.

Harold Kasper Hotz Tells How He Raised Prize Winning Crop

For several years I have had a small vegetable garden. When the contest was first started, I was very anxious to try for the prize. I had read of similar clubs in other places, but hardly knew how to begin.

My land being overflooded in the winter, it was still too wet to be plowed when the time came to set out the tomato plants. So it was rather late in the spring when my plot was plowed. As the soil is adobe, I had it plowed twice, then harrowed and rolled. But even then it packed so that it took a crowbar to break it up.

The next step was the planting. I put in sixty plants which cost me sixty cents. After digging the holes, I first put a spadeful of barnyard manure into each, and filled the hole with water and put in my plants. I then packed the soil firmly around the plants and protected them from the heat of the sun with shingles. In the early mornings and after school I worked in my garden, hoeing around the plants and pulverizing the ground.

As soon as my plants were tall enough, I put in my stakes and trained the plants up to them. Since then, I have found a better method of supporting them. I now have a trellis upon which my vines are trained.

When the vines branched out, I began to prune them, cutting off all the shoots, leaving only the main stem and three sturdy branches.

It was not long until the blossoms began to appear. I watered the plants until the fruit began to "set." Soon the yellow blossoms turned to little greenish-white tomatoes. These gave me courage to work for the harvest.

All during the warm summer I stayed at home and cared for my plants. I did not take any vacation trip, but diligently hoed weeds in my garden plot. Often a little audience would gather as I worked, my garden being on the main street. People would ask me questions about the plants and tomatoes. I went with a man from the State Agricultural Farm at Davis, to visit the plots of the other club members. Of course I came back to my own very much discouraged.

I gathered and sold my first box of tomatoes about the middle of August. Soon I was rushed with orders for both green and ripe tomatoes. I myself gathered, picked, weighed and delivered every tomato that I have sold. I still have a great number of orders to fill, after the contest is closed.

As the contest draws near the end, we are all becoming very much excited. I wonder who will be the lucky boy to go on the dreamlike trip through thirty-six states of the Union? If I do not win, I will at least have a goodly sum of money in my pocket, and a store of new experiences.

HAROLD KASPER HOTZ.

[The above interesting account of how this ambitious High School student persevered for and won success was written, as narrated, before the contest was decided. The boy who will deny himself the coveted mid-summer vacation in the effort to consummate an undertaking deserves the laurels, and will certainly make good in handling the responsibilities that come with manhood.—EDITOR.]

WHAT OUR NEAR-BY NEIGHBORS ARE DOING.

VINEBURG

Fred Batto transacted business in Concord Contra Costa, Thursday.

Charles Grockup visited the Exposition City, Sunday last, returning Monday, well pleased with his trip.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hiser, Miss Jessie and Master Henry Hiser were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Batto, last Sunday evening.

There will be a grand turkey shoot and raffle held on Sunday, Nov. 8th, 1914, at New Vineburg Inn. Choice birds will be on hand.

Grape picking is about over and many "knights of the road" are on their way to the orange groves, potato fields or any place where they can get employment.

Mrs. Arthur Batto and children, Evelyn and Francis, are spending a week in the metropolis with their relatives, Mr. and Mrs. August Fegone, and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Gander.

Fred Batto and Albert Bird accompanied by Mrs. A. Bird and Misses Louise and Emily Batto, with Arthur Batto at the wheel, motored to the City of Roses last Saturday. All speak well of Sonoma County's pretty city.

Lost—On Sunday, Oct. 18th between Vineburg and the Bowhill place, a keystone Masonic watch charm, marked "Crockett Lodge, King Solomon Chapter." Finder will receive suitable reward by returning the same to A. W. Lehrke, Vineburg.

P. Orsi, whose home is on the Hyde tract, suffered a very painful accident, Monday last. While endeavoring to pass through a barbed wire fence, Mr. Orsi was caught on the wire and his right eye and across the bridge of the nose were badly cut in three places. Dr. Gobar stitched the wounds, and Mr. Orsi is resting comfortably.

EASY JIM.

Land Spaulding, of San Francisco, had a vacation of a week with his grandmother, Miss Douglas Church, and his aunt, Mrs. Fred Schell.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Knight are being showered with congratulations by their many friends on the advent of a baby daughter. Little Miss Knight was laid in the arms of her happy mother at the Sonoma Valley Sanitarium, Thursday, and tipped the scales at eight and one-half pounds.

W. H. Curry made a business trip to San Francisco and Richmond on Tuesday. Mr. Curry has received many compliments from his friends and neighbors on the flourishing condition of his cactus growth. One year ago, he planted five hundred leaves on less than one acre of ground, the production from which has amounted to four thousand young leaves. So get busy.

Dr. Irving C. Gohar was hurriedly summoned to the Tony Silva, Jr., home Sunday, to attend Gertrude, the idolized two-year-old daughter of the household. The baby girl had swallowed a considerable quantity of lysol, and for more than two hours and a half the child lingered on the borderland of the Valley of Shadows, but medical skill conquered and baby Gertrude is happily well on the road to recovery.

HAPPY JACK.

The Masquerade Ball given by the Woman's Improvement Club, last Saturday evening, at Chauvet Hall, was a decided success. Many interesting costumes were seen on the floor. Lane; best sustained gentleman character, Chinese Coolie, Miss Agnes Moss of Sonoma; best dressed, Cake Walker, Miss Marie Dower. Thos. Lewis, of Sonoma, has the contract putting in the large bulkhead at Riverside Avenue, of this place. This is quite an undertaking, but Mr. Lewis is capable of handling the job, as he is an old-time railway constructor and knows the business.

The many friends of the late Mr. Byrnes, who was accidentally shot by his brother, last Sunday, at Ukiah, while out quail hunting, are extending their heartfelt sympathy to the members of his family.

Mr. Byrnes had made many friends in this valley, which he frequently visited during the last three years, as a lumber salesman for E. K. Wood, of Oakland.

ADALINE

Rudolph Wagner Promoted

The capability and strict attention to business of our popular young townsman, Rudolph Wagner, has been accorded due recognition by the Standard Oil Company in promoting the manager of their local distributing plant to a position as one of their head metropolitan salesmen. The young man is to have charge of the Standard Oil exhibit at the Exposition. Whitaker is one of the most eminent speakers on the Pacific Coast, and should be greeted by a large audience.

Tickets may be secured from S. P. Woodworth.

A SPLENDID SUCCESS

Mesdames H. J. Wicker and E. C. Casson made a splendid success of their effort to send a contribution to the Chronicle's Christmas Ship, which is to carry cheer and comfort to European sufferers, the ladies realizing $42.00.

The proceeds were taken down by Mr. Wicker, Tuesday, who received a receipt for the same from Mrs. Henry Pavot, chairman of the Chronicle's Christmas Ship.

The entertainment was the most enjoyable given for many months, and it is regrettable that a larger audience was not present to enjoy the beautiful tableaux, and other features. The program was as follows:

Opening address, Jesse F. Prestwood; vocal solo, M. H. Rowell; tableau, "The Three Fates," Mesdames L. Keyes and Pauline McMullin, and Miss Dorothy Doherty; recitation, Miss Nancy Bates; tableau, "Feather in the Cap," Mrs. Dora Stofen, little Miss Elizabeth Lewis and Master Donald Prestwood; vocal duet, Mesdames Lulu V. Emparan and J. A. Kinsella; tableau, "Music," Mrs. R. L. Watt; tableau, "Vintage," Mrs. A. W. Adler; play, "The Sick Doll," little Zoleta Clerici and Evelyn Pohl; and Master George Reed; tableau, "Messenger of Love," Miss Matilda Bacalla; tableau, "Hesitation Waltz," Miss Gladys Simmons and Joe McMullin; picture, "The Stork."

Mrs. Harry Lutgens Improving.

Word received from Mrs. H. Lutgens bears the good news that her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Harry Lutgens (nee Miss Helen Morris), who has been seriously ill, is improving. Mrs. Lutgens was summoned to Los Angeles, last week, by the critical condition of the young bride. Many friends of the newly-wedded couple hope for the speedy recovery of the charming girl wife.

CATHOLIC FETE NEXT WEEK

The ladies of St. Francis' Catholic Church are actively at work completing arrangements for the Halloween Festival, which takes place at Union Hall, Friday and Saturday nights of next week, Oct. 30 and 31.

Dancing and an entertaining program will be the methods of amusement for both evenings, and a very charming little matinee performance, to be given by the children Saturday afternoon, is being arranged by the Presentation Sisters. There is to be no admission charge for the afternoon entertainment, as this is for the special pleasure of the children.

While a number of handsome articles are to be raffled, including a china dinner set, gentleman's scarf pin, etc., yet the articles, for the most part, are practical and worth while.

Many tickets have already been sold on the valuable waterproof auto robe, the generous gift of City Trustee George Breitenbach. The owners of autos are reminded to take a look at the robe, which is on display in one of the show windows of the Breitenbach establishment.

A general good time is in store for all who attend this celebration of the favorite Halloween Festival.

An admission fee of twenty-five cents will be charged each evening.

MRS. FOOSHEE ENTERS INTO REST

The summons of the Death Angel ended the protracted sufferings of Mrs. L. Fooshee, Thursday morning, when her spirit took its flight into realms of eternal rest.

Mrs. Fooshee was a native of Berdston, Illinois, and was aged seventy-eight years and six months. About twelve years ago, deceased came to California with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Parent, with whom she had continuously resided, and both of whom had given to the patient sufferer the most tender care and devotion throughout the years.

Besides her tender and ever lovingly solicitous daughter, Mrs. Parent, the deceased leaves two sons, Frank and Walter Fooshee, who are residents of British Columbia.

Mrs. Fooshee was a woman of fine character, and warm, generous disposition, winning and retaining the respect and friendship of all who knew her well.

The funeral will be held from the Bates Undertaking Parlors this afternoon at two o'clock, Rev. T. M. Price officiating.

The interment will be in Mount Cemetery.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Alumni 40, High School 21, was the way the score stood at the end of the Basketball game last Saturday evening at Union Hall. It was a very fast game, and the work of the High School boys surprised the spectators, although they lacked a little in team work. The line-up was as follows: Alumni—Logan and O. Dresel, forwards; Clements, center; Canaveri and Bateman, guards. High School—Ranker and H. Dresel, forwards; Duhring, center; Thomson and Prestwood, guards.

Several of the boys went over to Sebastopol, last Saturday, to view the Truck Meet which included the high schools of this county. Henry Waltz, of Sonoma High School, won second place in the half mile and was awarded a silver medal. He also won fourth place in the javelin throw. Nice work, Henry. We are proud of you.

Monday morning we welcomed Nancy Bates back to High School again. Nancy has been attending dramatic school in San Francisco for the past year, but like most returning pupils is very glad to get back to old Sonoma High again.

Would it not be nice to be right with God constantly, by an exclusive love; by a passion like His own for the things of life. The man who sees no Intelligent Wisdom as earth's Most High is not well balanced, and not to yield Him the place of Supreme is most unreasonable. To want what would please God; to do as he would do in your place, to will with Him, is in divine harmony and is to love God. It is what God regards as right with Him and right that is at the base of things. At this service, we will try to reveal the new point where it is easy to serve God.

Y. P. S. C. E. will meet at 6:30 p. m. The pastor will conduct the service, and all the young people of our congregation are invited to attend.

Mrs. Ernest Campbell Ill.

Her host of friends in town and valley rejoice at the cheering reports which reach us from the bedside of Mrs. Ernest C. Campbell, who on Friday of last week was operated upon by Dr. Winterberg for appendicitis, at the German Hospital, San Francisco. The operation was highly successful, we are pleased to note, and Mrs. Campbell will soon again be at home to her friends.

"I should be glad if legislation could bar intemperance, but I have seen it tried and tried in vain. I do not believe that sumptuary laws ever had any effect to stop abuses in any country. When I was a young man I was in the State Legislature (Pennsylvania), and moved that the sale of liquor be prohibited in my district, and the motion carried. I did not find that I thereby made one drunkard less—they would only drink the more when they had the chance. There is no other way than by moral cuasion for the reformation of the world and the subjection of drunkenness."
